AGRICULTURAL LANDS

On the Magdalena and Altar Rivers, Sonora

Stock and Cattle Ranches in the Districts of Magdalena and Altar

The district watered by the Magdalena River is the best in Sonora; the greatest water shed, the greatest rainfall, and unquestionably the best climate, with an average elevation of 3000 feet. Corn is summer and grain in winter, and the best alfalfa district in Sonora. 200,000 ACRES of bottom land on the Magdalena River with ample flood waters, and pumping water at very shallow depth, with abundant mesquite fuel.

Less than 20% of the valley in cultivation today. Main trunk line railway traverses the valley. The mesa lands constitute the best grazing lands in Sonora. No tick. Agricultural bottom lands from $5.00 to $25.00. Grazing land with ample water for stock, $1.00 to $1.50.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. Mart Raines, brother of L. M. Raines, the mining man, is here from Mexico, enjoying a visit with his brother and family.

Dave Loeb, the Popular Haberdasher, has gone to Los Angeles, to meet a representative of a pig eastern clothing house.

Frank A. Krupp has gone to Phoenix, cross-country, via Florence, on his motor-cycle. Frank is a dare-devil rider and expects to make the cross-country run to the capital city in record-breaking time.

Last week Inter-State Oil Company stock sold for 10 cents per share. Now it is 50 cents. A month from now it may be $50, then some. Mesa Seven Lake stock is now selling for $100 per share.

Todd Woodworth is busy putting in new machinery at his Austerlitz mines in the Oro Blanco district, and a large force of men is busy night and day—three eight-hour shifts—developing the mine. Bully for Todd.

Joe Thompson, Jr., who for a long time has been in charge of one of the big hoists at Cananea has been enjoying a few days visit here with his mother and brother Carlisle. Joe's many friends will be glad to know he is prospering.

E. H. Evans, for several years connected with the Washington Trading Co. at Patagonia, has gone to Syracuse, New York to visit relatives and old friends whom he has not seen for several years. His numerous friends here join in wishing him a pleasant trip and a speedy return.

L. M. Raines, the mining man has for the past week been transacting business in Sonora, Mexico, where for a number of years he was employed as general manager of the Columbia Consolidated Mining Co., S. A. formerly the Hays Consolidated Mining Milling & Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, accompanied by their little son, after enjoying a short visit in the city with Mrs. Edwards' brother, Mr. Bracey Curtis, President of the First National Bank of Nogales, have returned to their California home. Mr. Curtis accompanied them to Tucson.

B. L. Cosgrove, representing Cia. Mex. de Petroleo "El Aguila" S. A., of Mexico City, who makes Hermosillo, Sonora, his headquarters, has been spending a few days in Nogales. Cosgrove is a live wire, and the large amount of business he does keeps his company advised of the fact.

John Wilson is fixing up the room in the Wilson building on Morley avenue formerly occupied by Hendrick's the barber. Next week a restaurant will open under the management of Wing, the restaurant man who has for some time past been conducting a restaurant on the second story of the building.

Messrs. Laver and Poston, officers of the Sonora News Co., have been spending a few days in the city, on their annual inspection trip. Both gentlemen are well known throughout Mexico and in this city, where since the formation of the big company, a branch store has done an immense business.

Mr. I. E. Bowers and wife are now making Nogales their home having taken pleasant apartments in the John Wilson Place on Elm Street. Mr. Bowers owns valuable mining property and land in Sonora, near Noria, which he is giving his personal attention. He visited Hermosillo a couple of days this week on business.

Phil Fergusson, the well known machinist, who for several years has made Nogales his home, left the forepart of the week for Davenport, Iowa, to accept a responsible position with The Western Pattern Manufacturing Company. Mr. Fergusson has worked for the Sonora Copper Company, the Buena Fortuna Mining Company and other big companies in Sonora. He is a first-class machinist and a good man. He and his family have many friends in this section, all of whom wish them good luck, always.

Wm. B. Knight, secretary and general manager of the Onyx King Mining Company, of Greaterville, Arizona, spent several days in Nogales, this week from Greaterville, where the onyx mines are situated. He brought to the city nice samples of onyx for his friends and acquaintances. Mr. Knight believes he is going to make a lot of money for himself and friends.

Mesa Lake Oil Company stock of Mesa, Arizona, is now $100.00 per share. The Inter State Oil Company stock—only a small block—is being offered for 50 cts. per share. An up-to-date machine has been ordered. For information regarding Inter-State Oil Company, see the secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. G. Bowman, local agent for the Southern Pacific Company.

Charley Holler, the commission agent and customs Broker, has returned from Naco, where for a year past he has been engaged in the broker business, and will again engage in the same business here, having offices in the L. Ephraim building on Morley avenue, over The Palace. Charley has a host of friends in the border city, all of whom will be pleased to learn of his return.

"Uncle Tom" Wills, of Uncle Tom's Paradise, accompanied by his friend, a handsome Collie dog, visited in the city a couple of days this week. Uncle Tom has sold his farm near Elgin to California parties, but he says he will soon have another not far from his old stamping ground where for a number of years he made his home under the sheltering branches of giant oak tree.

This week Colonel George Beebe, the land man, who is interesting colonist in the Elgin country, arrived from California with a big bunch of investors who contemplate investing in the Elgin district, which is rapidly filling up with practical dry farmers from different sections of the United States. The present year dry farmers who understand the game, will make good, without half trying.

W. S. Sultan, consulting engineer for N. L. Amster, of Boston, the present owner of the Three-R mine near Patagonia, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, spent Thursday and yesterday in Nogales, from Patagonia, where they are now sojourning. While here Mr. Sultan employed a number of experienced men to work at the Three-R, which is rapidly becoming one of Arizona's big producing mines.

The forepart of the week an agent of the Mexican government came to Nogales to receive a big assignment of American rifles and ammunition, shipped through Wells-Fargo Express Company. In the consignment were 500 guns and 30,000 soft-nose bullets. The war stuff reached Empalme in safety, and will be used in the work of pacifying Yaqui Indians who have recently been raising old Ned south of Empalme.

Don. Cirilo Ramirez, many years customs house broker in Nogales, Sonora, who now makes his home at Hermosillo, Sonora's state capital where he is engaged in business, was a stopover visitor in the line city a couple of days this week on his way to Cananea, where he went on private business. He recently visited the city of Mexico, accompanied by his daughter, a native daughter of Nogales and a most charming, highly accomplished young lady.

"Major" L. E. Carrillo, local agent for Schlitz, who owns a big ranch and several thousand cattle in the Elgin country, visited his property the forepart of the week, and found everything in fine shape under the able management of Tom Turner, one of the best cow men in the southwest, who resided in Nogales with his family when he was sheriff of Santa Cruz county. Major Carrillo visited Bob Shugart at Huachuca, where he is successfully engaged in conducting a wet-goods emporium.

Robert Young, the nine-year-old Creek Indian who is worth a million dollars as a result of oil having been discovered on his 160-acre allotment from the government, in the state of Oklahoma, is visiting Tucson for the benefit of his health, being accompanied by his mother, guardian and secretary. Before many moons, a number of Nogales boys—not Indians—expect to make big money as a result of their holdings in the McKinley county, New Mexico oil fields, owned by the Inter-State Oil Company of Nogales.

Harry Barnett, Postmaster at Patagonia, owner of valuable mining property near Patagonia, spent Thursday in the city returning home yesterday. Mr. Barnett is an enthusiastic citizen of the second city in the county. He has recently visited the great 3-R copper-silver bonanza and says it is certainly a world-beater. Everybody in Patagonia is happy over the advent into that section of Mr. Amster and his wealthy associates who are pushing the development of their great bonanza under the personal direction of W. S. Sultan, Mr. Amster's personal representative. A big force of men is now being employed by Mr. Sultan who is making the Three-R bigger and better every day. Mr. Barnett stated that the property is many times more valuable than any one believed and everybody connected is going to win big returns. Yesterday morning he returned to Patagonia after transacting private business here.

M. I. Pomeroy, of Mesa City, one of the lucky boys in the Mesa Seven Lake Oil Company, mention of which was made in last week's BORDER VIDETTE who is also a stockholder and director in the Inter-State Oil Company of Nogales, has been a visitor in the city a couple of days, leaving for his home at Mesa City this morning. Mr. Pomeroy brought with him a gallon of high-grade paraffine oil produced from the Mesa Seven Lake Oil Company's New Mexican oil field, which local oil experts agree is second to none in the United States. The local people who have invested in Inter-State Oil stock are to be congratulated. The company owns 160 acres of land one mile and a half from one of the best producing wells in the field, on which the new oil boring machine ordered by wire Thursday will be placed, and operated by high-class experienced oil people who are familiar with all the conditions existing in the new field. Thirty days after the machine is in place the Inter-State Oil Company expect to strike oil. Then watch 'em grow.

Big Deal on Tapis.

Yesterday morning a party of American capitalists headed by A. M. Conard of this city, left for Sonora, where they will inspect in the neighborhood of a hundred thousand acres of ranch property in the vicinity of Carbo, and several thousand cattle with a view of purchasing same. Those in the party were A. M. Conard, Captain Buft C. Mossman, W. E. Halsell, Dr. J. M. Johnson, and W. Beckford Kibbey, of the Alamo Cattle Company.

After looking the ranch property and cattle over in Mr. Conard's automobile, which on Thursday was shipped to Carbo, Mr. Kibbey and associates will ship sixty carloads of cattle from Carbo and vicinity to the United States.

It is said that the ranch cattle deal includes the great land and cattle interests of the Alamo Cattle Company in which W. Beckford Kibbey and Ramon Elias are interested. The consideration is said to be several hundred thousand dollars, gold. Dr. Johnson and Mr. Halsell are wealthy Kansas City cattlemen, associates of Captain Mossman, excaptain of Arizona Rangers.

Ives Is a Candidate.

Senator E. S. Ives of Tucson, one of Arizona's brightest lawyers and a Democrat through and through, has announced himself as a candidate for delegate from Arizona to the National Democratic convention to be held in Baltimore, according to Tucson papers.

Mr. Ives, upon his arrival home from Washington the other day, where he had been on legal business before the Supreme Court, said:

"I have for some time delayed announcing myself a candidate for delegate to the national convention because I believed there might be other Democrats and good friends of mine who were eager for that opportunity to assist in the selection of a Democratic presidential candidate," said Mr. Ives.

"But since no one else appears to have made any definite announcement, I have decided to actively seek my own choice as delegate."

On May 29th the Democratic state primaries will be held. The National Democratic Convention will be held in Baltimore on June 25th to express the preference of this state for a presidential candidate.

ARIZONA NATIONAL GUARDS.

Regular Army Officer Now Drilling Guardsmen.

With all companies of the Arizona National Guards under orders to recruit up to full strength, using particular care in the choice of applicants, Lieut. F. F. Jewett, the regular army officer detailed to instruct and inspect the national guard of Arizona, is about to make application to the adjutant general for a completely equipped medical corps for the national guard.

Lieut. Jewett plans a medical corps of 30 men to be apportioned among the medical officers of the regiment. They are to be allowed to recruit their own men and train themselves. Hitherto it is stated, company commanders have in some instances manifested the tendency to recommend to the medical officers men whom they have been unable to convert into soldiers.

The guardsmen are being carefully drilled now with much more care than usual given to certain details. It is expected that marching shoes will soon be issued to the guardsmen of Arizona, as has been done in the case of the California National Guard.—Citizen.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF ARIZONA A PROCLAMATION.

The Minute-book of the Union's daily record of events discloses a situation so appalling as to draw from the President of the United States this appeal, directed to the Governor of Arizona.

"Conditions of distress resulting from the flood in the Lower Mississippi Valley have assumed such intensity and magnitude that it has become my duty as President of the American Red Cross to make known the facts, in order that the people of the United States may express their sympathy in a substantial form. Fully twenty-five thousand persons are now homeless and dependent on the generosity of the country for food and shelter and the number is steadily increasing. The Army is doing everything possible to provide shelter and food to meet the immediate emergency, but the equally important task of conducting the relief camp, maintaining health and restoring the flood refugees to their homes under conditions which will enable them to return to normal condition of life, rests upon the local authorities and the Red Cross. Many thousands of people will return to their homes to find their houses and farm equipment, and food supplies for themselves and their farm animals, almost or wholly destroyed. Questions of health which inevitably arise from the gathering of great numbers of camps, are already becoming acute and to these will be added others even more serious when the waters subside. Typhoid, dysentery, small-pox, malaria and other diseases threaten, and must if possible, be prevented by prompt and vigorous measures. For this task resources far in excess of those now at command will be essential. If you, as President of your State Red Cross Board, see fit to supplement this publication by proclamation to the people of your state, the force of the appeal will be greatly strengthened. Contributions received by your State Board should be duly credited by your board treasurer and transmitted to the national treasurer in Washington."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEO. W. P. HUNT, Governor of Arizona, in recognition of the appeal of the head of the Nation and of the Red Cross, and mindful of the need which exists for prompt and substantial help to the afflicted of the Mississippi Valley, do hereby call upon the great-hearted liberal people of Arizona to give the means, in such sums as their worldly goods may justify and their sympathies dictates.

Contributions to this most worthy cause may be deposited with or sent to Miss C. C. Gilchrist, Superintendent of Charities, Phoenix, Arizona, who will receipt therefor, and will transmit the same to the national treasurer of the Red Cross in Washington.

Done at Phoenix, the Capital, this 20th day of April, 1912.

GEO. W. P. HUNT,
Governor of Arizona.
Attest: SIDNEY P. OSBORN,
Secretary of State.

Sunday, May 12th. Mother's Day will be observed at the Methodist Church in Nogales with appropriate services. The ladies of the church will have an abundance of white carnations on sale the Saturday before.
